

The Federal Bar Association
Oregon Chapter

ORDER FORM
FEDERAL COURT PRACTICE
HANDBOOK (Rev. Ed. 2005)
AND 2009 SUPPLEMENT

U.S. District Court for the District of Oregon

The FEDERAL COURT PRACTICE HANDBOOK contains each judge's unique views and preferences on every aspect of procedure, from Rule 16 discovery planning conferences to the verdict form, and everything in between. Both civil and criminal matters are covered. The 2009 SUPPLEMENT contains the responses of Judges Sullivan, Acosta, Clarke, and Papak.

This Handbook is a must for every lawyer who appears before our federal bench. The Handbook includes a three-ring binder with content organized by judge, plus a technology supplement with details about the evidence presentation systems available in each courtroom. With the binder you will receive CD-ROMs containing the Handbook and Supplement in pdf format.
